NO NEVER NO NO NO NO NO.

Keep your hands off my money. The government has proven it will spend all it can - not just all it has. It is presently waiting to inflate away it's past debts - and I will suffer from it. I don't need your help, taking my investments and returning me worthless Treasuries. Go get your (oops, I mean MY) money from the Social Security lockbox. Oh, It's empty? Just like government promises, or my retirement savings after you get your slimy hands on it. In fact, SS is a classic example of that (take my money now, give me worthless promises). I don't need more of that.

NO corporation in the US would be allowed to exist if it ran it's books like the US Government. That's pretty much all I need to surmise that the USG is full of charlatans. And any Bernie Maddoff selling a scheme like SS would be in jail (oh, yeah - he is).

So keep your immoral, greedy, grasping hands off what's mine. Stay out of pensions, retirement funds. Don't renege on Roth and 401K.
